

LOST MINERS

Midjourney AI Art Contest

The Forgottens: <https://lostminers.glitch.me/forgottens>

After seeing some of the amazing AI creations the Lost Miners community has made to bring their miners to life it was clear we needed to make it even more fun.

As you may know, 432 Lost Miners went unclaimed. They were instantly sent to random wallet mnemonics where they are presumably lost forever. They are “The Forgottens.”

We want to see AI enthusiasts bring them to life. So. Let’s have a contest.

Rules:

1. Choose any of the 432 unclaimed Lost Miners (The Forgottens) and bring the miner together using AI art (while most will likely use Midjourney you can use any AI art platform you want.)
2. You may submit multiple entries but all must be based on different Forgotten Lost Miners.
3. Entries must be in a square format.
4. Images must be submitted in at least 1080x1080 resolution.
5. Your Image must be named MinerID_TwitterHandle.
For example 3680_allcarofine
6. Submit each entry individually in this google form:
<https://forms.gle/45eNMrCBim7HdPy6A>
7. Contest entry deadline is February 20th, 2023.

Selection of Winners:

1. Verified holders of Lost Miners will be able to vote on submissions to help us choose finalists.
2. Winners will be chosen from the finalists by Blokpx (creators of the Lost Miners).
3. The total number of winners is TBD based on the number and quality of entries.
4. All winners will be based on different Forgottens. We encourage participants to submit multiple entries based on different Forgottens to maximize your chances of becoming a winner.

Prizes:

1. The winning works will be minted to a special NFT collection and sold as 1-of-1 editions on the coming BPX Auction platform.
2. Winners will receive 100% of the winning bid paid for the NFT(s) of their winning work(s) (before buyer's premium) as their prize.
3. Based on collector demand, we may offer limited editions of the winning works and, if these are sold, those proceeds will be split 50/50 between winning artists and Blokpx.
4. Any Limited Editions awarded for free by Blokpx will incur no fee and there will be no payout for these editions.
5. The NFT Collections created as a result of these promotions will likely have a 0% royalty, however if a royalty is added at any point in Blokpx's sole discretion, the proceeds will be split between Blokpx and the winning artist(s).

Terms:

By entering this contest, I certify that the submitted artwork is my unique creation using an AI application or platform that grants me ownership of the work. Blokpax may use the work in any format for the purpose of promoting or judging this contest. If I am selected as a winner, and in exchange for receiving payment from the described NFT auction/sales of the work, I grant Blokpax an exclusive and irrevocable global license to display, print, sell, remix or otherwise use the work as Blokpax sees fit in perpetuity. I understand that I am not licensed to create my own NFTs from winning works. I understand that I maintain non-commercial rights to display the work or use it to promote myself as an artist in my portfolio or gallery showings both online and in real life.
